

Fresh Start Counseling

PROVERBS 18:15 (MSG)

NEED A FRESH START?

Life is lived forward,
and understood backwards.”

-Soren Kierkegaard

I learned a long time ago that asking for help is a sign of strength, not weakness. Asking for guidance is a sign of maturity, not immaturity. Sometimes life becomes an arduous journey and we need a helping hand. May I offer you my hand? May I offer you a listening ear and a safe place to share your concerns?

Currently I am completing my Master of Arts Degree in Human Services, Marriage & Family Specialization, under the Counseling program of Liberty University in Lynchburg, VA. For more information on my counseling ministry, please contact me today.
